

Stone Fabricator

Compensation: DOE

Employment type: Full Time permanent

Rivard Stone is looking for a multifaceted team member to join our growing business. This new team member will safely operate stone saws, splitters, and tools to produce quality products according to the job orders. Production includes accurately reading job orders, pulling material, fabrication, and packaging products to specification. Fabricator must also properly maintain equipment as well as assisting other saw shop positions with various tasks as needed. This position includes the operation of numerous machines, including but not limited to: forklift, skid steer, overhead crane, and front end loader.

Role and Responsibilities

- Receive daily job orders from supervisor
- Maintain and verify equipment is in properly working order
- Set up machine to according job specifications
- Fabricate stone according to job order
- Finish and trim stone as necessary
- Prep and package material to be shipped
- Assist other saw shop operators
- Manage clean working environment

Qualifications/Requirements

- Positive attitude and great work ethic
- Ability and willingness to learn product
- Detail oriented
- Independent worker who can collaborate with a team and ask questions
- Self-motivated and able to adapt to varying work environments
- Accurate use and reading of a tape measure
- Capable of lifting up to 100 lbs safely
- Able to stand for long periods of time
- Safely operates machinery and tooling
- Effective communicator

Work Conditions

- 100% Manufacturing Facility
- Full-Time Hours (between the hours of 6am-5pm M-F, with potential for weekend and Saturday hours)

Qualified candidates may apply with their completed application (available online) in person or via email to devonr@rivardstone.com